

Locket

Suture Retention Device

Locket is a suture retention device intended for wound healing by distributing suture tension over a larger area in the patient in conjunction with a figure of eight suture closure and to temporarily secure sutures.

Locket is a Class 1 sterile product registered with the FDA under Device ID D496327.

ORDERING INFORMATION

MODEL NUMBER	PRODUCT DESCRIPTION	QUANTITY
9300	Suture Retention Device	1 Box (10 devices/box)